

Lived Experience Presentations : Learning Objectives Examples

Presentation Title:

Learning from Adoptees: Incorporating Adoptees' Voices into Practice

Learning Objectives

After attending this course, professionals will be able to...

- Recall adopted individuals' experiences with their adoption story
- Recognize the importance of incorporating adoptee voices into practice
- Give examples of strategies for adoption professionals to incorporate adoptee voices into trainings and practice
- Explain important ethical considerations for post adoption supports and navigating birth family relationships

Course Level: Intermediate

Presentation Title:

Birth Parents' Perspectives: The Journey of Openness Over the Years

Learning Objectives

After attending this course, professionals will be able to...

- Recall birth parents' experiences with placing their child for adoption
- Recognize the importance of using birth parent perspectives to reform practice
- Give examples of strategies for adoption professionals to incorporate birth parent voices into trainings and practice
- Explain important ethical considerations for birth parent supports and navigating open adoption.

Course Level: Intermediate

Lived Experience Presentations : Learning Objectives Examples

Presentation Title:

Adoption After Infertility: Lived Experience Panel

Learning Objectives

After attending this course, professionals will be able to...

- Describe the emotional and practical challenges associated with embarking on the journey of adoption following infertility.
- Give examples of strategies for coping with the emotional complexities involved in adoption post-infertility.
- Identify resources and support networks available to individuals considering or currently navigating adoption after infertility.

Course level: Beginning

Presentation Title:

Adoption Reflections & Mindsets that Move the Chains

Learning Objectives

After attending this course, professionals will be able to...

- Describe the speaker's personal journey and experiences.
- Explain the profound influence of adoption reflections on the adoption community and society and how these reflections drive meaningful change in social work practice.
- Identify key strategies that empower individuals and families to navigate the complexities of the adoption process.

Course Level: Beginning

