

In addition to providing standard contact and background information, please note that the application for attorney membership with NCFA will require:

- evidence of current membership in good standing with the American Academy of Adoption Attorneys, OR
- a letter of recommendation from an authorized representative of a NCFA Member Agency or an NCFA Member Attorney, which specifically addresses your experience and competence in adoption law practice.
- statistical information about your experience with adoption-related services and cases
- agreement to pay membership dues of $495 annually